

CHARGING & REMISSIONS POLICY

Nugent House School

Updated: October 2019

Review: September 2020

The Governors and Staff of Nugent House School believe that all our pupils should have an equal opportunity to benefit from school activities and visits (curricular and extra-curricular) independent of their parents/carers financial means.

This Charging & Remissions Policy outlines how we strive to ensure a good range of visits and activities are offered as part of our care offer at Nugent House School.

The 1996 Education Act requires all schools to have a policy on charging and remissions for school activities, which will be kept under regular review.

The policy identifies activities for which:

- No charges will be made.
- Charges may be made.
- Charges may be waived or subsidised.

No charges will be made for:

- Education provided during school hours (including the supply of any materials, books, instruments or other equipment.)
- Education provided outside school hours as part of the National Curriculum/Scheme of Work.
- Tuition for pupils learning to play musical instruments (or singing) if the tuition is required as part of the National Curriculum/Scheme of Work.
- Entry for a prescribed public examination, if the pupil has prepared for this at school.
- Examination re-sits if the pupil has been prepared for this at school.
- Education provided on any trip that takes place during school hours.
- Supply teachers to cover for those teachers who are absent from school accompanying pupils on an activity or trip.
- Transport provided in connection with an educational visit.
- Uniform
- Books / learning materials
- Meals
- Extra-curricular activities
- Trips and Visits
